BEACHCOMBER '71

Dedication

For sixteen years Mr. Egert has unselfishly given of himself toward promoting the better education of G.H.S. students. He's more than just an excellent math teacher. Many a class period has been spent trying to help students with problems outside of school. Since our freshman year we've known that we could always count on Mr. Egert for a guiding hand whenever the chips were down. As a tribute to his tireless efforts to help all students, we, the class of 1971, are proud to dedicate our yearbook to Mr. Herbert Egert.

In Memory

Christopher Paul Mueller

*His laughter was better than birds in the morning: his smile
Turned the edge of the wind: his memory
Disarms death and charms the surly grave.
Early he went to bed, too early we
Saw his light put out: yet we could not grieve
More than a little while,
For he lives in the earth around us, laughs from the sky.*

— From a selection by
C. Day Lewis

Class

When we look back on our four fleeting years,

A lump forms in our throats and our eyes fill with tears.

Try to bear with us through these accumulations

Of class meetings, dances and other tribulations.

As frosh we elected Mike Zahra, v-p; and Tuck as our head,

While Linda Mellas took notes and Kim ran our bread.

Suffering through sophomore year with budget of austerity,

We kept our same officers just for posterity.

Junior year was highlighted by numerous things;

Pecan log rolls, and auction and, of course, our class rings.

At class meetings Jim Tuthill took Tucker's old job,

With assistance from Georgia to quiet the mob.

We stumbled through prom time with memories of fun.

Would you believe it started with two bands and ended with one?

At last we were Seniors to reign for a year,

History

With superior minds that underclassmen did fear.
 Remember the concession stand of purple and gold?
 Much paint went in Sue's hair, so I was told.
 A certain Senior team forever laments,
 That Bruce's stronghold in Seminar was current events!
 Our classes of Health brought much fascination,
 Of pills and joints and sex education.
 In Washington D.C. we sure had a blast
 Of touring the city 'til our feet couldn't last.
 Graduation was upon us and we couldn't believe
 That our four years were over and we had to leave.
 Nothing remains that hasn't been done
 By that carousing Class of '71

Officers

Class Of 1972

As the 1970 school year began, so did our first year as upperclassmen! Our adviser, Mr. Carr, stood by as we elected our officers: Peter Harris as our new president and Marcy Verity resuming her duties as vice-president. Diane Benko was given the job of keeping us financially straight, and Kathy Heaney took her place as the pen-wielder of the group.

Our first dance, "Halloween Haunt", brought in quite a crowd, and "Heart-beat", our Valentines's Day Dance resulted in the start of many new romances.

One of the most exciting days of the year was the one on which we received our class rings. No longer could anyone mistake us for anything but Juniors, for we now wore proof of that.

At this time we are eagerly waiting June 25th when we will formally honor the Seniors with a prom we hope they will never forget. We look forward to the end of Junior year with mixed emotions. This is what we have been waiting for for three years — to reign over the halls of GHS. Since we will be the biggest class to have ever graduated from GHS we should make the biggest effort to improve our school. It's our last year, so let's make it our best.

I can stick a thumb tack on my tongue.

Ron, the beard was bad enough, but an Afro?

Wow, no kidding, yeah??

Mercy, Mrs. Wetmore, mercy!

Gee, I've only got enough for half a period.

Profiles In Courage . . .

Don't jive me, Carol.

Boy, these nudist colony shots are fun.

You should've taken the groceries out first, Steve.

What do you mean "Red Dog" is a communist plot?

Anne, what you mean "hot foot"?

Now for my next joke . . .

Hey Lew, good plug for the old man.

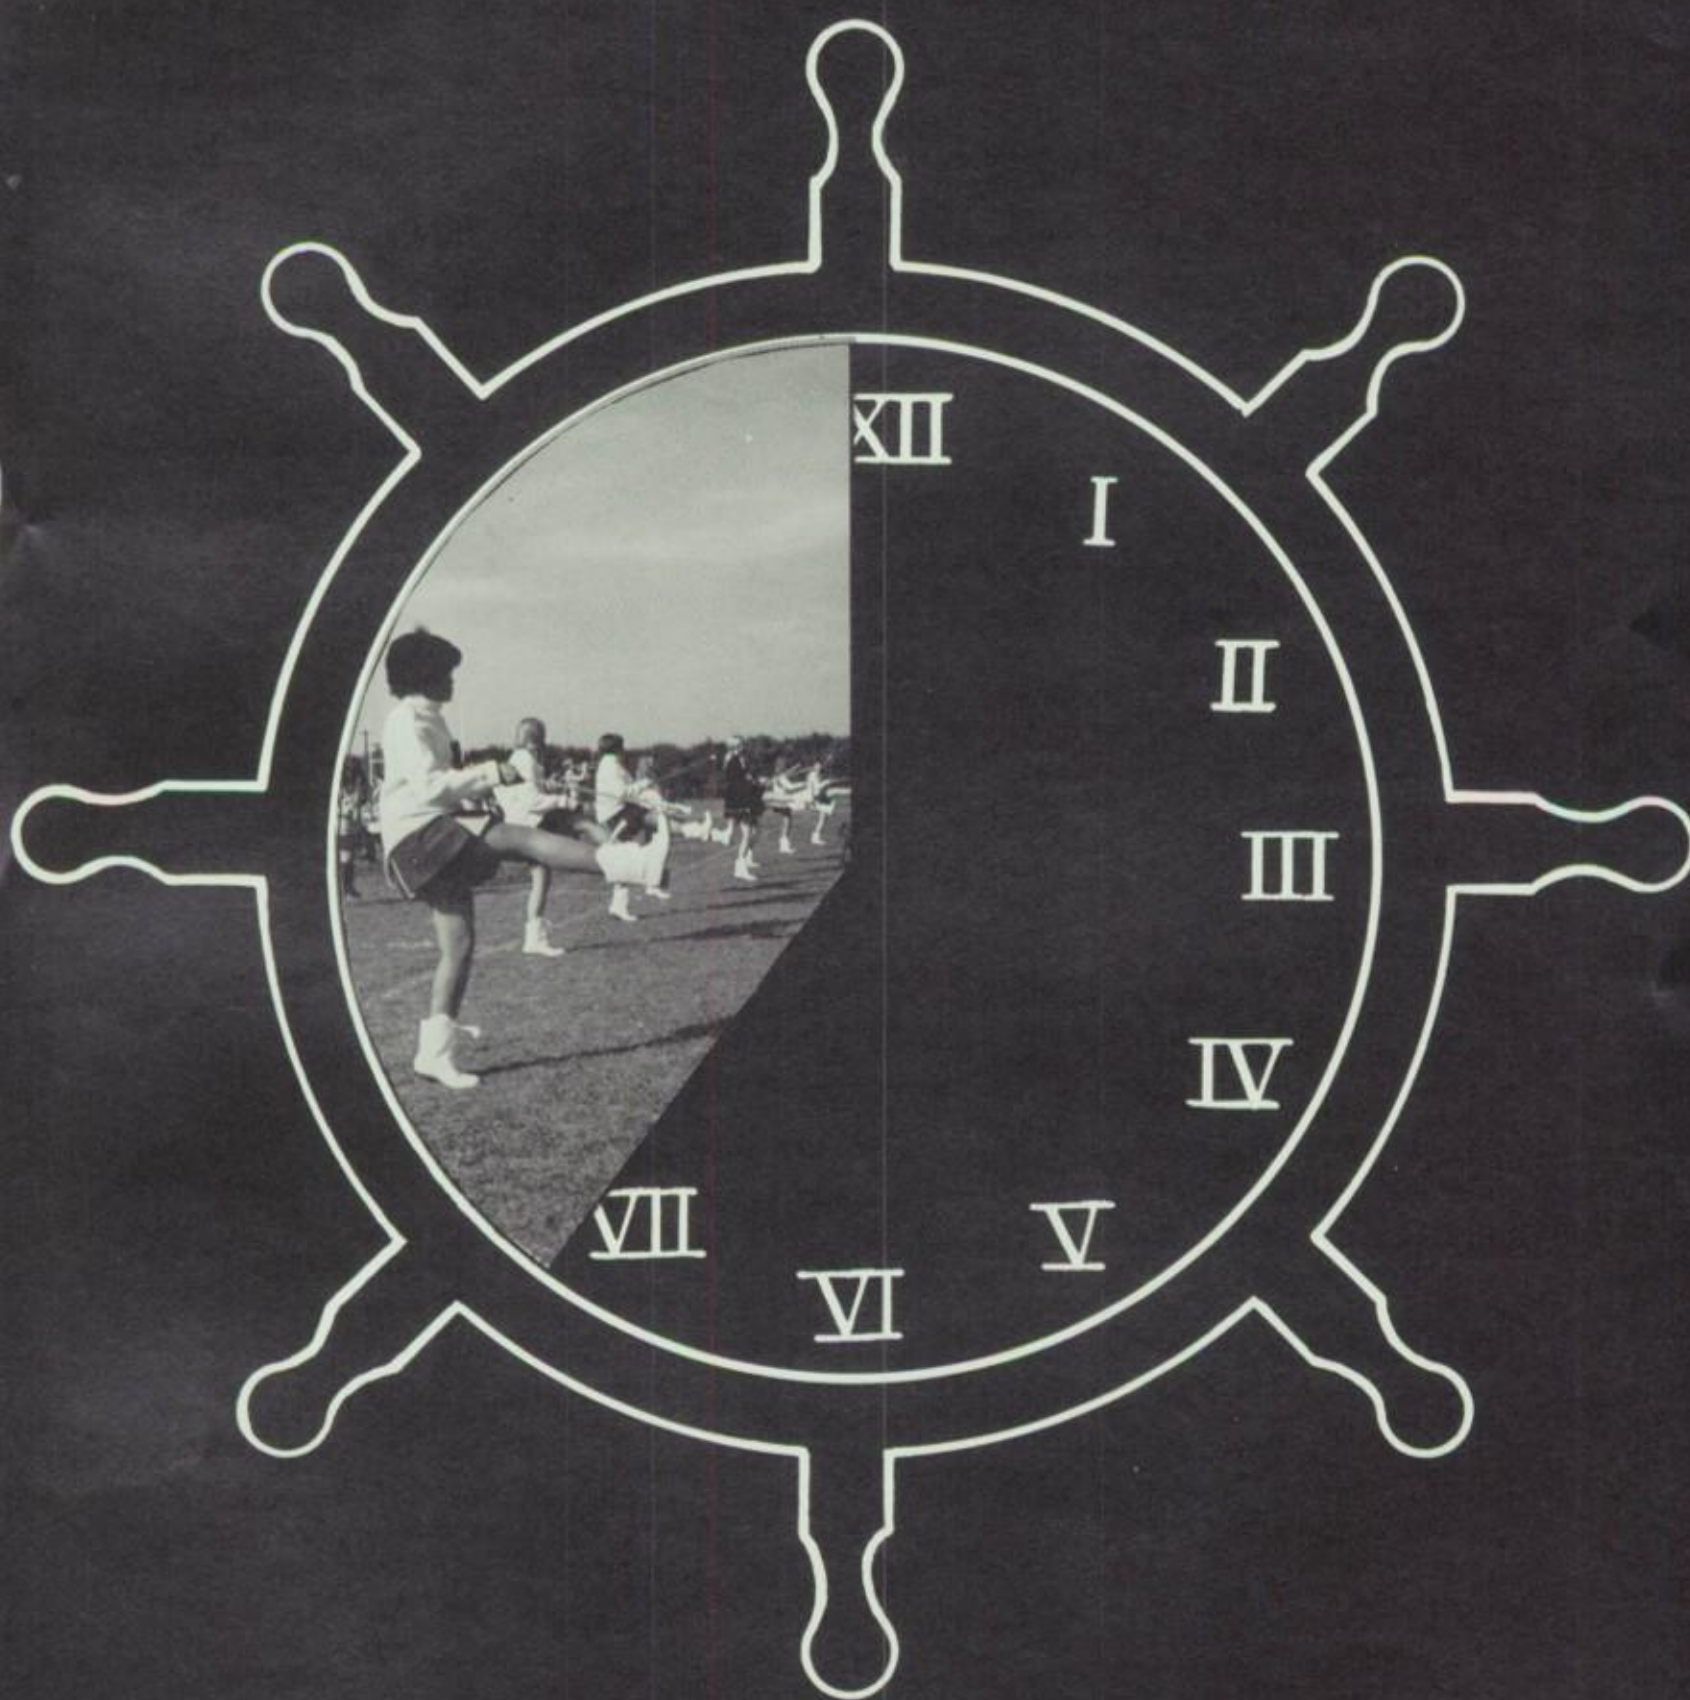

Richter, get the #%?! out of my way!

That's the second fender this month, Drew.

Look! Mr. Egert just split his pants again.

Varsity Football

Greenport, which seems to have a good team every year, proved 1970 to be no exception finishing with a fine 7-1 record. This was the first time Greenport beat both Southampton and Riverhead in the same year and the first time Riverhead lost two straight to the Porters. Another first was that through the first five games Greenport was unscored on. Throughout the entire season only 48 points were scored against the defense, while the offense proved it could move the ball scoring 177 points. Tom Shedrick and Bev Smith led the team in rushing with over 500 yards each. John Stepnoski led the aerial attack with over 500 yards to Allen Edwards and Mark Corazzini. Standouts for the defense were: Larry Mims, end; Allen Edwards, defensive back; Jim Sage, tackle; and Don Halliwell, linebacker. Graduating from this year's team are John Stepnoski, Don Halliwell, Larry Mims, Mike Zahra, Mark Corazzini, Dave Andrews, Mike Sage, Scott Rogers, John Schmid, Brad Damiani, and John Burczyk. Next year's team should be another good one with Tim Reeves expected to fill the quarterbacking spot and Pete Harris and Tom Shedrick in the backfield. However they will be out to revenge this year's lone setback. All eyes will be on the Porters when Port Jefferson comes to play at Greenport.

Allen

Prior to this year, Greenport had won only two basketball championships (1941, 1963). But according to Coach Manwaring, Coach of the Year in League Six, 1970-71 was going to be the year. After losing an opening non-league contest, the Porters went through their next 18 games victorious. Greenport not only went undefeated in League Six for the first time, but also was second in scoring in the county. Representing League Six in the County Playoffs and after beating West Islip (78-54), Greenport finally lost to a much taller Islip (80-67). Junior Allen Edwards set a new Suffolk County scoring record of 1522 career points, breaking the old record of 1503. Don Halliwell and Phil Charters were forwards, with Tom Shedrick and Tucker Wells in the backcourt. Dave Edwards also saw considerable action when Tucker Wells was out with an injury. The Porters had a balanced scoring attack with four of the starting five in double figures: Allen Edwards 28.7, Tom Shedrick 14.8, Tucker Wells 12.2 and Phil Charters 11.0. Graduating from this year's team are Phil Charters, Tucker Wells, Don Halliwell, John Stepnoski and Mike Sage. Despite this loss, next year's Porter team should have another outstanding year with Al Edwards, Tom Shedrick, Dave Edwards, Jim Stulsky, Mike Pekunka, Jason Savas and upcoming J.V. players.

Cross Country

After winning 3 championships and tying for another in the past 4 years, Greenport had to settle for a 4 won and 2 loss record in 1970. It was definitely a rebuilding year as all five of the Porters top runners departed via graduation.

Greg Rhinow proved to be the Porters best runner as he placed first in 3 meets. Rounding out the first five were Vince Quatroche, Mike Ficurilli, Tom Grodski, and Tucker Wells.

In the League 6 Championship meet, Greenport placed third. Greg Rhinow and Vince Quatroche received medals for placing in the top ten finishers.

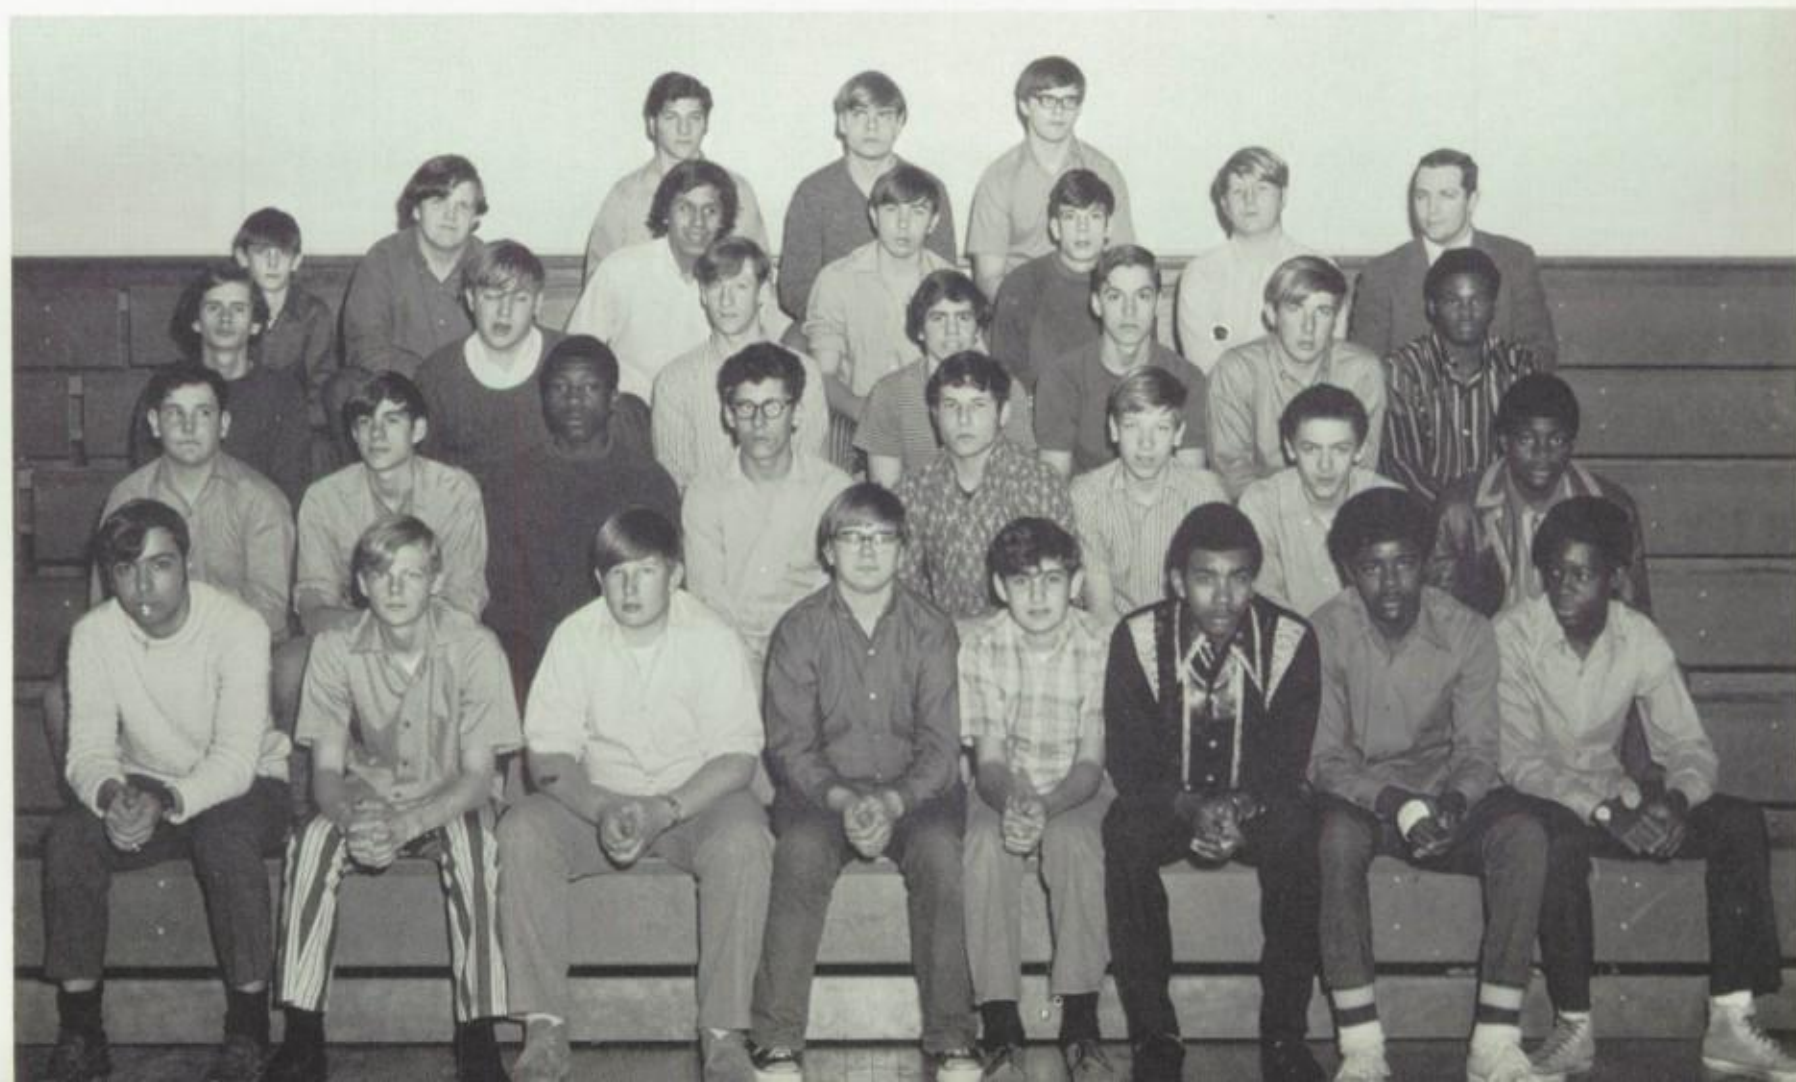

Greenport track got a big boost this year when Mr. Connolly, a new member of our English Department, agreed to take on the coaching chores. This year's team will work to be ready for Oystermen entry into League Five competition next year. Obviously, this is a year of rebuilding. Returning veterans are Al Edwards, Dave Gildersleeve, Larry Mims, Tom Hickey, Bob Chute, Carlos DeJesus and Tom Yates. Among many young prospects being brought along are Robbie Davis, Mike Krezminski and Bill Tillinghast. Coach Connolly has the boys working hard and should have a successful year.

Golf

Since joining league competition in 1969, Greenport has done well under the fine coaching of Mr. Burlingame. This year's team should be no exception. Greenport will be playing such teams as Central Islip, Port Jefferson, Comsewoque and the local teams of Mattituck and Shelter Island. The returning lettermen are senior Marc Wiederlight and juniors Jim Sage, Pete Harris and Pete Checklick. The bright prospects for the year are freshman Bill Fuccillo, Mark Van Tuyl and Jim Richter. If these players can improve, Greenport should have another good year. For the first time there are almost as many girls as boys on the team — eight girls and ten boys. It won't be long before the girls start and the boys watch!

Varsity Baseball

Last year Greenport won 15 and lost 5 and finished in second place in League 6.

Rich Staron and Tucker Wells were the leading pitchers with 7 wins and 2 losses each. The leading hitters were Mike Sage, John Stepnoski, Don Halliwell, and Mike Pekunka.

In the Suffolk County playoffs, Greenport met Hauppauge and defeated them in a thriller by scoring two runs in the last inning. Gary Herzog and John Stepnoski sparked the Porters with long home runs. Greenport lost to the eventual championship team (Comsewogue) in the semi-final round.

Greenport lost 5 regulars from that team, but returning are Don Halliwell, Mike Sage, Mike Pekunka, Tucker Wells, Tom Shedrick, and John Stepnoski. Fighting for the remaining berths are Tim Reeves, Al Edwards, Steve Damiani, Brad Damiani, Angelo Stepnoski, Phil Charters, and Mike Zahra. The prospects look good if pitching depth behind Tucker Wells can be developed, and if the hitting improves.

Coach Wells who annually fields a good team has hopes that this year will bring the Porters yet another championship in League Six, if several key men can overcome their injuries.

Each home owner is allotted space in front for their own parking. so we would appreciate it if when visiting across the st. you would park there. as there are times I would appreciate parking in front of my own home. as it is I find continual daily parking here. while the home visited has space
in front for their guests - Thank you

Our Special Thanks

goes to

Mr. & Mrs. William E. Adams for providing our staff with room and board for three long, tedious months

Mr. & Mrs. Stuart Dorman of the Suffolk Times for their contribution of photographs

Mr. Paul Stoutenburgh for helping us out when we were in a spot

Mr. George Gildersleeve for his encouraging assistance during our midnight watches and finally

Frank Csajko for devoting his time and energy, and making our yearbook work bearable

To our future . . .

The woods are lovely dark and deep,

but we have promises to keep . . .
